Trestleboard September 2022

From the East

Welcome back to our regular Stated and Called communications starting in September. It's time to come back into the Lodge and start our practices and officer meetings again. I look forward to also seeing a good group of Brothers at our coming meetings. Being DIM for the last 2 months kind of dwindled the crowd down a bit but that was to be expected.

We have also missed a few Brothers here and there due to Covid flaring up again. Remember that if you feel sick or test positive, PLEASE think about your brothers and quarantine yourself. Better safe than sorry.

We are starting off September with a couple new candidates to receive the 3 Degrees of Masonry. I look forward to having the Degree performed in our Lodge rather than them being done as courtesy work from other Lodges. Fortunately, this year has been a year of growth and getting new members through all levels of our great Fraternity.

I hope you all had a nice break and summer.

Fraternally Steve Austin

From the West

My Brothers, I hope the summer of 2022 has treated all my Beach Lodge Brothers well. My family and I took more personal time in the later part of the summer, and I thank the Brothers for their patience as I was away. I even missed the Proficiency Exam and FC Degree for Brother Seth Franzone to which I apologize.

As we begin the back half of our year at Beach Lodge, my greatest feeling is that of excitement. We will be busy in the upcoming months with degree work and catechism. Two candidates have been received and balloted on to receive the Three Degrees of Masonry: Lydell Sumner and Robert Tranthum. The Degree will be Monday, September 12 at 7 PM. Degree practice is to be held Wednesday, August 31st & September 7th at 6:30 PM. I am honored and excited to be able to confer our upcoming EA Degree on the 12th as this will be the first Degree at Beach Lodge in quite some time. I urge all Sons of Beach to attend.

Fellow Craft Brother Seth Franzone is currently working hard on his FC Catechism with FCB Joey Williams from Harbor City 318. I am sure, due to Brother Seth and Joey's diligence in their studies, their MM Degree will be soon, and the Date and Time will be in the October Trestleboard. I have also been working with FC Brother Miguel Benitez on his catechism with the plan to examine him late October or early November. Pay attention to your Trestleboards, emails and text messages for upcoming dates and times.

This September also brings us the Grand Masters Official Visit to our District on Saturday, September 24th held at AZAN Shrine. It begins at 6 PM, but I suggest arriving a little after 5 PM to allow time to register and find a seat. Please RSVP To R.: W.: Jay Rodgers. You can find his email on the front page. This is an important visit and I urge all Master Masons to attend this event. Your ladies are also invited. Grand Lodge will record our attendance, especially the officers. Let us do our best to show up for the R.: W.: Jay P. Rodgers.

This is an exciting time of year for many of us, and even more so with the Masonic work we have in the pipeline. I look forward to seeing all my Brothers at our upcoming Stated Communications, Degree Practices, Degrees, and events.

Fraternally, W.: Douglas M. Setzer

From the South

The six directions that define space, as we know them, are: north and south, east and west, and up and down. Individual Mason is taught the importance of traveling from west to east in search of more Light. In the Tree of Life, Yesod and Tifereth parallel the upward move in the journey from Foundation (west) to Beauty (east). These two directions reside in the column of equilibrium between the severe female Boaz in the left column and the merciful masculine Jachin in the right. The south direction that parallels the sephiroth Chesed is the point needed to necessarily create a triangle.

Don't we need three to open?

No one has final authority on the interpretation of Masonic symbolism, but a reflection may be helpful from time to time.
