From the East

My Brothers:

My Brothers, as I look around the Lodge on a meeting night one word becomes painfully apparent and that word is "attrition". Not only are some of our Brothers growing older and less able to attend because of various reasons, but I feel certain that the "COVID Pandemic" has frightened many of you from attending the lodge.

I've stated over and over about the respect that each of us has for one another at the Lodge and how it has become a part of our every moment in Lodge to ensure that we are all observing proper precautions throughout the evening meeting as well as how we conduct ourselves when entering and leaving the Lodge. So please don't let "COVID" be a problem keeping you from attending.

If you have a problem with getting to and from the lodge, please take the time to call one of the Officers listed on the 2nd page of the Trestleboard – a day or two before the meeting – and ask them for their assistance. I am confident that your call will be honored and your request will also be honored; and you will once again be able to sit in Lodge with your Brothers.

Fraternally,

Harry Levey

Worshipful Master
